Club Trail Ride October 10

We will have a club trail ride October 10 at Carlos State Park north of Alexandria. No formal ride times are set as of now. (Rides will be set up amongst those who are there at the time. There will be a pot luck supper Saturday night at 6 pm. (or so!) We hope to see you there!!

Member News – Kay Harth

Many of you already know that Kay Harth has been diagnosed with breast cancer. She had surgery Thursday, Sept. 10 and is now recovering at home. She will have a long road of chemo and radiation therapy ahead of her. If you would like to contact Kay and Donny and offer a meal, company for an afternoon, or another form of support, I am sure it would be greatly appreciated.

Horse Owner Education Day

The Red Horse Ranch Arena in Fergus Falls is hosting a Horse Owner Education Day on October 24. The registration deadline is October 21. They are offering sessions on Winter Care, Equine Dentistry, Manure Management, Poisonous Plants, Vitamin & Mineral Nutrition and Truck & Trailer Safety & Operation. Visit www.extension.umn.edu/horse for more information or to register.

Miracle Horse Riders

Fundraiser Ride September 26

The Miracle Horse Riders are having their annual fundraiser at Andes Tower Hills on September 26. The first ride will leave at 10 a.m. Lunch will be served at 12:30 and a second ride will begin at 2 p.m. Please call Sharon at 320-815-4144 for more information or to reserve your lunch.

Reservations should be made by September 18 so call now! There will also be a silent auction.

Proposed Helmet Rule

It was proposed at the June meeting that the club consider adopting a helmet rule. If you would like to make a motion to adopt a helmet rule, please bring the details of the motion (who, when, etc) to the table at the September meeting and we will vote on the matter. If there is no motion brought to the table, we will continue to operate with no helmet requirement.

Congratulations & Good Luck to all those participating at the 4-H State Show and the WSCA Champ Show this month!
